RENAISSANCE

WELCOME

It is a pleasure to address that together with our principles, we at Renaissance Trading and Contracting Co. have successfully forged a remarkable reputation for our enterprise by establishing unrivalled quality, flexibility and reliability in all our product and service offerings. Over the year with success and continuous growth, measured both in satisfactions with our clients and the strong business partnership with our suppliers.

We activate in a field where the world is tirelessly pushing its technology boundaries, where simplicity, reliability and flexibility became key factors of success for more complex applications and systems. Also, the market requires a special approach to cope with competitive costs while defending highest quality and robustness. We believe that we have managed to do so by concentrating innovation in each piece or system we have delivered.

Today, as our business grows to shape new horizons for both our own people and the communities which we serve, we remain committed to our philosophy of providing high quality service which complies with the highest international standards and developing mutually beneficial partnerships with our customers.

We, therefore, trust that our values shaped around quality, cost and delivery, allow a long-term partner and us to be competitive for our clients. RTC will continue to strive not only to maintain but also enhance its reputation by a process of continuous improvement in every area of its operations.

We thank you for your support in contributing to the development of our company.
